Trade at the Cummings' store continues good, and its no wonder, as their stock and lowest prices are so well known that none fails to visit this store when at the county seat.

The county officers never looked as well as they do now. They have been thoroughly renovated and repainted throughout. R. Rogers did the brush work and it is well done.

The Golden Giant Mine will be produced at Gobleville, May 25, by the Paw Paw company. We recommend the entertainment to the liberal patronage of the people in our neighboring village. The more the merrier.

A pleasant wedding occurred at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Ball on Tuesday evening last, the contracting parties being Miss M. Lulu Ball and Mr.
Edwin L. Bullard, both of this place.
A large number of friends and relatives were present, and the bridal gifts were numerous and valuable. At eight o'clock the bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. Chas. Shaefer of Lawton and Miss Gladys Lincoln of Decatur, took their position in a corner of the parlor, which was tastefully draped with lace and adorned with foliage.
The ceremony, performed by Elder T.
Brooks, was brief and beautiful. The bride and bridesmaid were attired in light gowns, both stylish and becoming.
Miss Bernice Quick rendered the wedding march as the party entered the room. After congratulations were received, the company repaired to a spacious tent which had been erected upon the lawn and partook of elegant refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and fruits. Mr. and Mrs. Bullard both passed their childhood and youth in this village, and have a host of friends who wish them continued happiness during their married life.

An interesting and important chancery litigation was decided by Judge Buck a few days since. In July, 1890, William Harrison of Grand Rapids, an extensive wagon manufacturer, purchased a large tract of land, nearly 2,000 acres, in the township of Pine Grove. The purchase was made of one Frank Smith of Three Rivers, Mich., paying $6,000 down and giving notes and mortgage for $106,500 to secure the balance of the purchase money. Harrison claims that Smith made representations that there were 28,000,000 feet of good hardwood timber on the premises, whereas there was really less than half that amount and that of an inferior quality, as he found when he came to cut it into lumber. Then several suits in chancery were begun in the circuit court in this county involving the purchase and sale of these premises.
The court found that the allegations of fraud were practically true and entered a decree of $74,764 70 and costs against Smith and in favor of Harrison. The court found that notes to the value of $68,250 had gone into the hands of innocent purchasers before due and must be held valid. One John N. Wheeler, claiming to be the owner of two of the $24,124 notes, commenced foreclosure proceedings thereon. The court decreed that all but $10,000 of this claim should be entirely discharged and canceled and adjudged costs against Wheeler and in favor of Harrison. The sum of $10,000 the court held to be the property of one James T. Kenna, who was made a party defendant in the foreclosure suit. The case was heard and proofs taken before Judge Buck at chambers, in Kalamazoo.
